INTRODUCTION

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete. (Jn 15:11)

“The definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch but in communion, in intimacy, with Jesus Christ” (CT, no. 5). These ends are evident in this framework—designed to guide catechetical instruction for young people of high-school age wherever and however it takes place: in Catholic high schools, in parish religious education programs, with young people schooled at home, or within the context of the catechetical instruction which should be part of every youth ministry program. The Christological centrality of this framework is designed to form the content of instruction as well as to be a vehicle for growth in one’s relationship with the Lord so that each may come to know him and live according to the truth he has given to us. In this way, disciples not only participate more deeply in the life of the Church but are also better able to reach eternal life with God in Heaven.

As a framework, this document offers guidance to catechetical publishers in the creation of instructional material. Within each theme, doctrinal elements related to it are identified. The order in which the doctrinal elements within each theme are identified should not be understood to be an outline of a text or course. Rather, they are offered as building blocks that can be combined in any number of ways within that particular thematic structure and can be augmented with additional doctrinal teaching, depending on the creativity of authors and editors. In addition to aiding those creating catechetical texts and materials, this framework will also serve to aid those responsible for overseeing catechetical instruction within dioceses as well as those responsible for curriculum development or the development of assessment instruments designed to complement texts, programs, or curriculums. It is understood that implementation of a new curriculum will require time for the development of new materials as well as revision to diocesan guidelines and curricular structures within schools and religious education programs. A successful implementation will rely heavily on catechetical publishers of high-school-age materials as well as on the teachers and catechists of high-school-age young people.

The framework is designed to shape a four-year, eight-semester course of catechetical instruction. It is composed of six core semester-length subject themes with room for a diocese or school to choose two elective subject themes. It is strongly recommended that the core courses be covered in the order in which they appear in this framework. The sequence in which the core curriculum appears reflects a systematic point of view in which each course builds on a foundation laid by those that precede it. In addition, some national uniformity in catechetical instruction on the high-school-age level would be a benefit in the modern mobile society. Five possible elective themes appear as part of this framework. Normally, the elective themes should appear either as one in the third year and one in the fourth year or both in the fourth year.

Since this is a framework and not a tool for direct instruction, the doctrines and topics designated are not necessarily defined or completely developed. Such detail will be present in the catechetical texts and materials that will be developed on the basis of this framework. It is expected that after developing new materials, publishing houses will submit them for a review as to their conformity with the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The process of that review will ensure that the materials authentically and completely define and present the teaching of the Church.

In addition to providing guidance about the doctrinal content of catechetical instruction for high-school-age young people, this framework is also designed to help those same young people develop the necessary skills to answer or address the real questions that they face in life and in their Catholic faith. Within each theme, including the electives, there is a section titled “Challenges,” which raises examples of these questions and provides direction for ways to answer them. This element is designed to give catechetical instruction for high-school-age young people an apologetical component. Publishers and teachers or catechists are to strive to provide for a catechetical instruction and formation that is imbued with an apologetical approach. Challenges that appear under one particular theme can also apply to other themes in the framework, and such application is encouraged. The identification and inclusion of additional challenges by publishers and by teachers or catechists to achieve this goal is also encouraged.

CORE CURRICULUM

I. The Revelation of Jesus Christ in Scripture

The purpose of this course is to give students a general knowledge and appreciation of the Sacred Scriptures. Through their study of the Bible they will come to encounter the living Word of God, Jesus Christ. In the course they will learn about the Bible, authored by God through Inspiration, and its value to people throughout the world. If they have not been taught this earlier, they will learn how to read the Bible and will become familiar with the major sections of the Bible and the books included in each section. The students will pay particular attention to the Gospels, where they may grow to know and love Jesus Christ more personally.

I. How Do We Know About God?

- A. The thirst and desire for God (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], nos. 27-30, 44-45, 1718).

 - 5) Preparation through John the Baptist (CCC, nos. 523, 717-720).
 - c. Jesus Christ, the first and the last, the definitive Word of Revelation, the one to whom all Scripture bears witness, is God's only Son (CCC, nos. 65-67, 73, 101-104, 134, 423).
 - 3. The transmission of Divine Revelation (CCC, nos. 74-95).
 - a. Apostolic Tradition (CCC, nos. 74-79, 96).
 - b. The relationship between Tradition and Sacred Scripture (CCC, nos. 80-83, 97).
 - c. The Deposit of Faith and the role of the Church (CCC, nos. 84-95, 98-100).

II. About Sacred Scripture

- A. Divine Inspiration.
 - 1. Inspiration is the gift of the Holy Spirit by which a human author was able to write a biblical book which really has God as the author and which teaches faithfully and without error the saving truth that God willed to be consigned to us for our salvation (CCC, nos. 105, 135).
 - 2. Since God inspired the biblical writers, he is the author of Scripture (CCC, nos. 105-106, 136).
 - 3. Because the human authors needed to use the language and thinking of their time, we need to study the conditions and use of language in the context of their time and understand what they intended to communicate, remembering that these human authors might not have been conscious of the deeper implications of what God wanted to communicate (CCC, nos. 106, 108-114).
 - 4. The Bible is inerrant in matters of Revelation and faith: because God is the author of Scripture, all the religious truths that God intends to reveal

- concerning our salvation are true; this attribute is called “inerrancy” (see DV, no. 11; CCC, no. 107).
5. The Bible is a sacred text for Christians; it contains in the Old Testament writings sacred to the Jews.
- B. How the Bible came to be.
1. Oral tradition and its role (CCC, nos. 76, 126).
 2. Development of the written books (CCC, nos. 76, 106).
 3. Setting the canon of Scripture (CCC, no. 120).
 - a. Apostolic Tradition is the basis for which books the Church included (CCC, nos. 120, 138).
 - b. Sometimes other criteria came into play, e.g., the Gnostic gospels were rejected in part because they did not include or shied away from the suffering and Death of Jesus.
 - c. Local Councils of Hippo (AD 393) and Carthage (AD 397).
 - d. Ecumenical Council of Trent (AD 1545-1563).
 4. Translations of Scripture.
- C. Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church.
1. Importance of Sacred Scripture (CCC, nos. 131, 133, 141).
 2. Study of Sacred Scripture (CCC, no. 132).
 3. Scripture and prayer.
 - a. Liturgy of the Hours (CCC, nos. 1176-1177).
 - b. Scripture at Mass and other liturgies (CCC, nos. 103, 1096, 1100, 1184, 1190, 1349).
 - c. The psalms and the Our Father are biblical prayers shared by all Christians (CCC, nos. 2585ff., 2759ff.).
 - d. Lectio divina: a meditative, prayerful approach to Scripture (CCC, nos. 1177, 2708).
 - e. Scripture as basis for individual prayer and for prayer within small Christian communities and other parish, school, or local gatherings (CCC, nos. 2653-2654).
- D. Criteria for interpreting the Sacred Scripture (CCC, nos. 109-114, 137).
1. Read and interpret Sacred Scripture within the tradition and teaching of the Church.
 2. Give attention both to what the human authors intended to say and to what God reveals to us by their words.
 3. Take into account the conditions of the time when it was written and the culture where it was written.
 4. Read and interpret Sacred Scripture in the light of the same Holy Spirit by whom it was written (DV, nos. 12-13).
 5. Read and interpret each part of Sacred Scripture with an awareness and understanding of the unity of the content and teaching of the entire Bible.
 6. Be attentive to the analogy of faith, that is, the unity that exists in all Church teaching.
- E. Senses of Scripture (CCC, nos. 115, 118-119).
1. The literal sense: the meaning conveyed by the words of Scripture and discovered by exegesis (CCC, nos. 109-110, 116).
 2. The spiritual sense (CCC, no. 117).
 - a. Allegorical sense: recognizing the significance of events in the Bible as they relate to Christ.
 - b. Moral sense: Scripture teaches us and encourages us how to live and act.
 - c. Anagogical sense: Scripture speaks to us of eternal realities.
- D. The Bible in relation to science and history (CCC, nos. 37, 159, 1960).
1. The Church teaches us how to relate truths of faith to science.
 2. There can be no conflict between religious truth and scientific and historical truth (CCC, no. 159).
 3. The difference between the Catholic understanding of Scripture and that of those who interpret the Bible in an overly literalist, fundamentalist way or with an approach limited to a symbolic understanding.
- E. Ancillary approaches to Scripture.
1. Research done by scholars’ critiques of Scripture’s texts, history, editing, etc.
 2. Biblical archaeology: discoveries of Dead Sea Scrolls, Nag Hammadi, targums, and other authentic ancient texts.
 3. The forms of literature in the Bible.

III. Understanding Scripture

- A. Authentic interpretation of the Bible is the responsibility of the teaching office of the Church (CCC, nos. 85-87, 100).
1. Divino Afflante Spiritu (Pius XII, 1943; permitted limited use of modern methods of biblical criticism).
 2. Dei Verbum (DV) (Vatican II, 1965; Church teaching on Revelation).
 3. Pontifical Biblical Commission, Interpretation of the Bible in the Church, 1993, nos. 5-19.

IV. Overview of the Bible

- A. Old Testament (CCC, nos. 121-123, 138).
1. This is the name given to the forty-six books which make up the first part of the Bible and record salvation history prior to the coming of the Savior, Jesus Christ (CCC, no. 120).
 - a. Many Protestant Bibles have only thirty-nine books in the Old Testament; other Protestant Bibles contain the additional seven, referring to them as “deuterocanonical.”
 - b. Catholics rely on the Greek version of the Old Testament for their Bible, while Protestants tend to rely on a Hebrew version.
 2. It is called the “Old” Testament because it relates God’s teaching and actions prior to the coming of Jesus Christ, who is the fullness of Revelation. It also focuses on the covenant God made with the Jewish people, which is called the “Old Covenant” to distinguish it from the New Covenant made by Jesus Christ (CCC, nos. 121-123).
 3. The Old Testament contains the Pentateuch, the Historical books, the Wisdom books, and the Prophetic books.
- B. New Testament (CCC, nos. 120, 124-127).
1. This is the name given to those twenty-seven books which compose the second part of the Bible and which focus on the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and some writings of the early Church.
 2. The New Testament is composed of the Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, the Epistles or Letters, and the book of Revelation.
- C. The unity of the Old Testament and the New Testament (CCC, nos. 124-125, 128-130, 140).

V. The Gospels

- A. The Gospels occupy the central place in Scripture (CCC, nos. 125, 139).
1. They proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ, the Word of God, the definitive Revelation of God.
 2. The Gospels contain a record of the life of Jesus Christ and of his teachings and redeeming work.
 3. The Gospels lead us to accept Jesus Christ in faith and apply his teachings to our lives.
- B. Three stages in the formation of the Gospels (CCC, no. 126).
- C. The Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke.
1. Approximate dates for each Gospel.
 2. What is known about each of these three evangelists.

3. The churches for whom Matthew, Mark, and Luke wrote.
 4. The contents of the Synoptic Gospels (CCC, nos. 512-667).
 - a. Infancy narratives in Matthew and Luke.
 - b. The Baptism of Jesus.
 - c. The Temptation of Jesus.
 - d. Sermon on the Mount in Matthew; Sermon on the Plain in Luke.
 - e. Jesus’ teaching, including the parables.
 - f. The miracles.
 - g. Last Supper, the Passion, Death, Resurrection, Ascension (CCC, nos. 1329, 1337, 1366, 1323, 1412, 1521-1522, 1532, 1708, 1992, 2020).
- D. The Gospel of John.
1. Approximate date of the Gospel and churches for which John wrote.
 2. What is known about John.
 3. The content of the Gospel of John.
 - a. The Prologue (CCC, nos. 241, 291).
 - b. John uses Christ’s dialogues and personal testimony and is more mystical (CCC, nos. 547-550).
 - c. John treats miracles as signs of Christ’s glory/divinity—flows from John 1:14.
 - d. The Bread of Life discourse (Jn 6).
 - e. Christ’s Last Supper discourse and priestly prayer.
 - f. The Passion, Death, Resurrection.

VI. Challenges

- A. Is it true that Catholics do not use or read the Bible?
1. No. Catholics use the Bible regularly. The Bible or Scripture is an integral part of Catholic prayer life, forming part of every Mass, every sacramental celebration, and the official daily prayer of the Church—the Liturgy of the Hours (CCC, nos. 141, 1190).
 2. The Church urges Catholics to use the Bible in personal prayer (CCC, nos. 2653-2654).
 3. Scripture study and prayer groups using Scripture are a common part of parish life.
 4. In the fourth century, St. Jerome said that “ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ”; this underlines the importance of Scripture in the life of the Church (CCC, no. 133).

- B. Isn't the Bible just another piece of literature?
1. No. While Scripture contains various types of literary forms and genres, it is more than just literature. It is the inspired Word of God (CCC, no. 135).
 2. Since it is not just another piece of literature, Scripture cannot be either read or understood merely in the same way as other literature (CCC, no. 108).
 3. Scripture always needs to be read or interpreted in the light of the Holy Spirit and under the direction of the Church (CCC, nos. 100, 111, 119, 137).
- C. Is the Bible always literally true?
1. It depends on what one means by "literally." The Church does not always propose a literalist or fundamentalist approach to Scripture but rather a contextualist approach. The Church teaches that all of Scripture is true on matters pertaining to religious and salvific teaching because it is inspired by God for that purpose (CCC, nos. 107, 116).
 2. The Bible has a definite historic basis for events recounted in both the Old and the New Testaments; the Church particularly upholds the historicity of the Gospels (CCC, no. 126). However, the Church does not claim that the Bible's purpose is to present scientific or historical facts (CCC, no. 107).
 3. The Church gives guidelines for interpretation of Sacred Scripture (see earlier in outline).
- D. Isn't the Bible about the past? Why do people today think it applies to them?
1. While the Bible contains history, stories, and teaching about events in the past, Scripture is the living Word of God. While the content is rooted in particular moments in history, the message is timeless and universal.
 2. God continues to speak to us through Scripture; this is why the liturgies of the Church always contain Scripture and why personal prayer focused on Scripture is vital.
- E. Why do Catholics maintain beliefs and practices that are not in the Bible?
1. The Bible is not the sole means that God chose to hand on the truths of Revelation. Scripture and Tradition are the two complementary ways Revelation is passed down (CCC, nos. 80, 97).
 2. There are teachings that come through Tradition that are not explicitly found in Scripture. However, nothing taught through Tradition ever contradicts Scripture since both come from Christ through the Apostles (CCC, no. 82).
 3. Apostolic Tradition refers to those things that Jesus taught to the Apostles and early disciples, which were passed down to us at first by word of mouth and were only written down later. We identify these beliefs as coming from Tradition and understand that this Tradition is part of God's Revelation to us (CCC, no. 83).
- F. Why do some people try to change what the Church teaches about Jesus Christ?
1. People have tried to change teaching about Christ for many different reasons. Sometimes it is to justify their particular belief or lack of belief. Sometimes it has been out of sincere but misguided or misinformed efforts to try to explain mysteries about Jesus Christ or God's Revelation.
 2. In the early history of the Church, there were a number of heresies about Jesus Christ which arose when people tried to explain the mystery of who he was and is. An example of this is the Arian heresy, which denied the full divinity of Christ.
 3. Sometimes people did not like what Jesus taught or did or what happened to him. There were a number of "gospels" written, which the Church, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, recognized as not authentic. Some of these gospels shied away from teaching the Incarnation, suffering, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus.
 4. In modern times, there are individuals and groups who try to explain in natural scientific terms the miracles of Jesus, thus undermining his divinity.

III. The Mystery of the Incarnation

- A. Jesus Christ is fully God and fully man (CCC, nos. 464-469).
1. Jesus Christ, a Divine Person, is truly the Son of God, who, without ceasing to be God and Lord, became man and our brother (CCC, no. 469).
 2. Jesus Christ took on a human nature. The eternal Son of God incarnate worked with human hands; he thought with a human mind. He acted with a human will, and with a human heart he loved. He was like us in all things except sin (CCC, no. 470). Man's creator has become man (CCC, no. 526).
 3. Jesus showed his humanity in every event of his human life (CCC, nos. 512-534):
 - a. In his family life, his friendships, and his socialization with others we see him experience human joy and happiness and demonstrate human virtues.
 - b. Through things such as hunger and thirst in the desert, temptation by the Devil, grief at the death of Lazarus, agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, and his Death on the Cross, we know that he also experienced pain, suffering, and sorrow. In his human encounter with the sick and the outcast, he personified compassion (CCC, no. 538).
 4. The unity of the two natures in the one Person is called the "hypostatic union" (CCC, no. 468).

IV. Jesus Christ Teaches Us About Ourselves

- A. Jesus embodies what has been revealed in and through creation.
1. God created the human person in his image and likeness; male and female he created them. This is why we must respect the dignity of all people (CCC, nos. 1700-1709).
 2. To be fully human means to fully accept and become the person God created us to be, a human person endowed with special gifts which reflect God: immortality, intellect, free will, the ability to love (CCC, nos. 356-358, 1702-1706).
 3. The Incarnation affirms that we are created as good, but in need of salvation, and are meant for eternal glory with God. The Incarnation also describes how God continues to work out our sanctification in the world, e.g., Church, sacraments, priesthood (CCC, nos. 461-469).
 4. God has entrusted his creation to us; we are stewards charged with procreating and protecting life and using the rest of creation respectfully (CCC, nos. 287, 354).
- B. Jesus Christ redeems us and gives us his grace so that we can choose the good according to God's will and resist sin and its effects (CCC, nos. 1705, 1708-1709).
1. Jesus invites us to believe in him, to invite him into our hearts, and to follow him and his teaching as the path that leads to life, for he is "the way, the truth, and the life" and is worthy of our belief, adoration, and love (CCC, nos. 1741-1742).
 2. He reveals the way to repentance and conversion, teaching us to leave sin behind and to live a new life in him; he gives us the spiritual power and grace to overcome evil; he also teaches us about God's forgiveness (CCC, nos. 1847-1848).
 3. He teaches us how to be single-hearted in our desire for God, to offset the disordered affections and divided hearts with which we live (CCC, nos. 1716-1717).
- C. Jesus Christ reveals the Father to us, who we are, and our call to holiness.
1. By becoming man, and by his Death and Resurrection, Jesus Christ unites us to God (CCC, nos. 461-464).
 2. We become the free adopted children of the Father through Baptism (Gal 4; CCC, nos. 1265-1270).
3. We are conformed to Christ and can grow in holiness and goodness.
 - a. Lessons from the Sermon on the Mount (Mt 5-7; CCC, nos. 1716-1724).
 - b. Parables and other teaching of Jesus Christ (CCC, no. 546).
 - c. "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" (Mk 10:17-22).
 - d. The Two Great Commandments: love of God and love of neighbor (CCC, nos. 2083-2557).
 - e. Teaching about the final judgment (Mt 25: 31-46; CCC, nos. 544, 1033, 1373, 2447, 2831).
 4. He teaches us to pray and teaches us through prayer (CCC, nos. 2607-2615).
 - a. In the Gospels, the Lord Jesus teaches us about prayer:
 - 1) Going off by himself to pray teaches us the importance of finding time for prayer (Mk 1:35, 6:46; Lk 5:16).
 - 2) Jesus Christ teaches his Apostles and disciples to pray (Mt 7:7-11; CCC, no. 2609).
 - 3) The Lord Jesus teaches the importance of perseverance in prayer (Lk 11:5-13, 18:1-8; CCC, nos. 2729-2737, 2742-2745).
 - b. Jesus Christ teaches us through prayer:
 - 1) The Lord Jesus teaches us to approach prayer with humility and a sense of need (Lk 18:9-14).
 - 2) God is our Father, whom we approach through prayer (Mt 6:9-13; Lk 11:2-4; CCC, nos. 2759ff.).
 - 3) Jesus Christ intercedes for us (Jn 14:13, 16:24; CCC, nos. 2665-2669).
 5. Jesus sends out his disciples to evangelize (Lk 10: 1-20; Mt 28:16-20; CCC, nos. 861, 905).
- D. Jesus also tells us of the goal in this life and of the end of life.
1. The Communion of Saints (CCC, nos. 948, 957, 960, 1474).
 2. Four last things.
 - a. Death (CCC, nos. 992, 996, 1007, 1010-1014, 2299).

 - d. Hell (CCC, nos. 1033-1037).

V. Challenges

- A. How can we know God really exists?
1. Even without the Bible and Divine Revelation, we can know God really exists through reason and through experience (CCC, nos. 36-39, 50, 156-159).
 2. By looking around at creation, reason and experience can point to God's existence (CCC, nos. 156-159).
 - a. The order and beauty of the natural world point to God as the origin and Creator of the universe (CCC, no. 295).
 - b. Creation did not happen by chance; throughout history the Church has taught that someone had to be behind it, and that someone is God (CCC, nos. 156, 295).
 - c. The natural law written upon each person's heart and the longing for God that each person has also point to God's existence (CCC, nos. 1954-1960).
 3. Reason and experience can also teach us to accept the word of other believers (CCC, no. 39).
 - a. God's Revelation comes down to us through Scripture and Tradition (CCC, nos. 50-53, 74-83).
 - b. The testimony and witness of others who have gone before us: people whose stories appear in the Bible; Apostles, saints, and martyrs (CCC, nos. 823, 828, 857, 946, 1258, 2473).
 - c. The faith of people we know today: the pope and the bishops in union with him; priests and deacons; parents, grandparents, and other family members; teachers and catechists; the witness of fellow Catholics as well as the witness of non-Catholic believers (CCC, nos. 85, 1655-1658).
 4. We can also know God exists through faith. For those who do believe, through faith as well as prayer and grace, they can grow in the knowledge and experience of the reality of God and his existence (CCC, nos. 143, 153-159).
- B. There are some who see human suffering and conclude that God does not care about us. Why do we say that he loves us deeply (CCC, nos. 1503-1505, 1681, 1808)?
1. We say God loves us deeply, even in the midst of suffering, because he reveals his love to us in many ways, especially in Christ's taking our suffering upon himself for our sake (CCC, no. 1505).
 - a. He shows us his love in creation (CCC, no. 54).
 - 1) God created the world entirely out of love and not out of necessity (CCC, no. 295).
 - 2) God created human beings in his image and likeness with the ability to give and receive love (CCC, nos. 1700-1706).
 - b. The suffering and Death of Jesus Christ shows and proves that love (CCC, nos. 599-623).
 - 1) God sent his Son to redeem everyone from sin so that all can share a life of love eternally with him (Jn 3:16-17; CCC, nos. 599-605).
 - 2) Jesus lives now and establishes a relationship with each and every one of us, particularly through the sacramental life of the Church (CCC, nos. 662-664, 1084-1090).
 - 3) God continually calls us to union with him in his Son through the Holy Spirit by means of a life of holiness (CCC, nos. 1091-1109).
 - c. God helps us know and sense his love through the people and events of our lives (CCC, nos. 897-913, 1069).
 2. We also know of his love because he tells us of his loving plan to save us.
 - a. He tells us in Scripture, the living Word of God (CCC, nos. 80-82).
 - b. He also tells us through the liturgy of the Church, speaking to us in the Scripture and giving himself to us in the sacraments, especially the Eucharist (CCC, nos. 1067, 1324-1327).
 - c. He tells us through the Church (CCC, nos. 785-786).
- C. How can people say that God is good if suffering and evil are present in the world?
1. Suffering that exists in the world is not something caused by God or sent by God; God only brings about what is good for he is goodness itself. When there is evil and suffering, God does not cause it, but sometimes he does permit it for reasons we cannot now know or understand (CCC, nos. 1500-1501).
 2. Evil is a reality and a mystery, that is, it is hard to understand the why of it (CCC, nos. 309-314). Some evil and suffering are a result of the work of the Devil or Satan (CCC, no. 395).
 3. Some suffering is the result of human sin and is not from God. It was God who gave us free will; sin is the result of the misuse of this gift (CCC, nos. 1849, 1852-1853).

4. The Passion and Death of Jesus can help us to see beyond suffering and remind us that God is present with us in our suffering, pain, and death; our own personal suffering when united to Jesus' suffering becomes redemptive for ourselves and others (CCC, no. 1851).
 5. The Scriptures try to help us understand suffering: the psalms, the story of Job, and the prophets offer insights and consolation. In particular, the Resurrection of Jesus can help us see beyond suffering to hope and to eternal life (CCC, nos. 638-655).
 6. We need to remember that God always wants what is best for us (CCC, nos. 374-379).
 7. Natural disasters can be understood in part as a result of Original Sin (CCC, no. 400) and also because the world is in a state of journeying toward ultimate perfection (CCC, no. 310); they are not signs of God's displeasure or punishment.
- D. Does God really want us to be happy?
1. Yes. From the beginning of Creation, God has created us to be happy both in this world and in the next and has shown us the ways to be truly happy. Unhappiness was caused by people themselves when they did not or would not listen to him (CCC, nos. 374-379).
 2. God sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, so that we might be saved (Jn 3:16); that confident hope is the cause for happiness in spite of suffering (CCC, nos. 599-605).
 3. Jesus Christ taught us all he did so that we might share in his joy (Jn 15:11), which shows us again his desire for our happiness (CCC, nos. 736, 1832).
 4. The blueprint for true discipleship and happiness is found in Christ's teaching of the Beatitudes (Mt 5:2-10; CCC, nos. 1716-1718).
 5. True joy is the mark of followers of Christ (Phil 4:4; CCC, no. 1832).
 6. Jesus established his Church to help people find true happiness and joy (CCC, no. 1832).
- E. There are some who dismiss God's Revelation and say that the beliefs and doctrines taught by the Church have been made up by members of the Church. How can we be sure that what the Catholic Church teaches has come from God?
1. We can be sure that what the Church teaches has come from God because of Apostolic Tradition and Apostolic Succession (CCC, nos. 888-892, 861-862, 858-860).
 - a. What was revealed in and through Jesus Christ was entrusted to St. Peter and the Apostles, who were taught directly by Jesus. They in turn passed on those beliefs through those who succeeded them (CCC, nos. 81, 84).
 - b. Through the centuries, the popes and bishops, the successors of St. Peter and the Apostles, have carefully transmitted to the generations whom they shepherd the truths revealed and taught by Jesus Christ (CCC, nos. 96, 171, 173, 815).
 - c. Jesus Christ promised his Apostles that he would be with the Church until the end of time (Mt 28:20).
 2. Christ has also given the Church a share in his own infallibility (CCC, nos. 889-892).
- F. How do we as Catholics answer questions about the Blessed Virgin Mary and her role in the life and prayer of the Church (CCC, nos. 148, 484-511, 721-726, 773, 963-972, 829)?
1. Questions about why Catholics pray to Mary.
 - a. Catholics do not worship Mary; worship belongs to God alone. They venerate Mary and the saints.
 - b. Mary does not have the power to answer prayers on her own; God alone has that power.
 - c. Prayers to Mary are asking for her intercessory help.
 - 1) Since Mary is already in Heaven, she will know better than we how to offer praise and prayer to God.
 - 2) When people pray to the Blessed Mother they are asking her in turn to offer the same prayer for them to God.
 - 3) When Mary and the saints were on earth, they cooperated with God to do good for others; so now from their place in Heaven they continue to cooperate with God by doing good for others who are in need on earth and in Purgatory.
 2. Questions about references in the Gospels to the brothers and sisters of Jesus.
 - a. From the earliest days of the Church, Mary has been revered as ever-virgin; she was a virgin before Jesus' birth and remained a virgin afterward.
 - b. It is not clear who the "brothers and sisters" of Jesus are.
 - 1) At the time Jesus lived, the designation "brother and sister" also referred to cousins and sometimes even close neighbors.

III. The Mission of Jesus Christ (The Paschal Mystery)

The purpose of this course is to help students understand all that God has done for us through his Son, Jesus Christ. Through this course of study, students will learn that for all eternity, God has planned for us to share eternal happiness with him, which is accomplished through the redemption Christ won for us. Students will learn that they share in this redemption only in and through Jesus Christ. They will also be introduced to what it means to be a disciple of Christ and what life as a disciple entails.

VII. Challenges

- A. Why would God the Father allow his Son, Jesus, to suffer and die the way he did (CCC, nos. 599-609)?
 1. God the Father allowed Jesus Christ, his Son, to suffer and die the way he did because of his love for all human beings; in that love, he wants us to live eternally with him in heaven. His Passion reveals the depth of the Father's love in helping all people to not be overcome by the magnitude of evil, sin, and death.

2. Because of Adam and Eve's sin, all human beings are born with a wounded human nature due to the absence of the life of Christ's grace, and so we could not live eternally with God unless we were redeemed (CCC, nos. 402-406).
 3. God the Father allowed his Son, Jesus, to suffer and die because Jesus' sacrifice destroyed the power of sin and restored us to friendship with God.
 4. In part, the Father allowed Jesus to suffer and die the way he did in order to show us the gravity and seriousness of sin.
- B. Why are followers of Jesus Christ sometimes so willing to make sacrifices and to accept pain and suffering, especially in witness to Christ and their faith?
1. Christians are willing to make sacrifices and undergo suffering patiently for a number of reasons.
 - a. They are following the example of Jesus Christ, who through his suffering and Death gained salvation for us (CCC, no. 1505).
 - b. Jesus Christ also predicted that people would suffer for their faith and promised that he would be with them in their suffering. Knowing this, believers try to accept suffering patiently, to trust in God, and to pray for his grace to sustain them. They rely on the Holy Spirit's gift of fortitude to grow in the virtue of fortitude (CCC, nos. 1808, 1831).
 - c. Followers of Jesus Christ know that suffering is never in vain because it can help one move toward Heaven and eternal life. In our suffering, we can help make up to some degree for the hurt and harm we cause by our sin.
 - d. Finally, the suffering, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus teaches us to look beyond the sufferings of this world to the promise of eternal life with God in heaven (CCC, no. 1521).
- C. Isn't making sacrifices and putting up with suffering a sign of weakness (CCC, nos. 1808, 1831)?
2. Christ strengthens the person to undergo suffering and thereby become more like Christ himself. Our suffering, when united with his own, can become a means of purification and of salvation for us and for others (CCC, nos. 618, 1505).
 1. No. Making sacrifices and putting up with suffering requires a great deal of courage and strength. Jesus teaches us, by example, about the value of unselfish living and the courage and strength that requires. It takes grace and personal holiness to live as Jesus Christ has taught us.
 2. Jesus shows us through the whole Paschal Mystery (suffering, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension) that giving of ourselves is the path to eternal life and happiness (CCC, nos. 571-655).
 3. He gives us the example of accepting the Father's will even when it involves suffering.
 4. Jesus teaches us both in word and by example to refrain from revenge and to forgive those who hurt or sin against us (CCC, nos. 2842-2845).
 5. Suffering is necessary to develop our maturity in Christ and to love our neighbor as Christ loves him (Col 1:24; CCC, nos. 1808, 1831).
- D. In the end, isn't it really only the final result that matters?
1. No. Every moral choice that a person makes has an effect on the person and society (CCC, nos. 1749-1756).
 2. A good end never justifies an evil means (CCC, no. 1753).
 3. One must never do evil just so that good may come of it (CCC, no. 1789).

IV. Jesus Christ's Mission Continues in the Church

VI. Challenges

- A. Why do I have to be a Catholic? Aren't all religions as good as another (CCC, nos. 760, 817-822, 836)?
 1. To be a Catholic is to be a member of the one true Church of Christ. While elements of truth can be found in other churches and religions, the fullness of the means of salvation subsists in the Catholic Church (CCC, nos. 816, 836-838).
 2. Christ willed that the Catholic Church be his sacrament of salvation, the sign and the instrument of the communion of God and man (CCC, nos. 774-776, 780).
 3. Christ established his Church as a visible organization through which he communicates his grace, truth, and salvation (CCC, no. 771).
 4. Those who through no fault of their own do not know Christ or the Catholic Church are not excluded from salvation; in a way known to God, all people are offered the possibility of salvation through the Church (CCC, nos. 836-848).
 5. Members of the Catholic Church have the duty to evangelize others (CCC, nos. 849-856).
- B. Isn't the Church being hypocritical in telling other people to be holy and avoid sin when many Catholics, including the clergy, are guilty of terrible wrongs (CCC, nos. 823-829)?
 1. Some members of the Church might be hypocritical. Members of the Church, like all human beings, are guilty of sin, but this doesn't make the Church wrong or hypocritical.
- V. Implications for Life of a Believer
 - A. Belonging to the Church is essential (CCC, no. 760).
 1. Christ willed the Church to be the ordinary way and means of salvation (CCC, no. 763, 772-776).
 2. We receive Christ's redemption as members of his Body the Church.
 3. Christ entrusted Word and sacraments to the Church for our salvation.
 4. Church has fullness of truth and totality of the means of salvation.
 - B. Jesus Christ enriches us through the Church.
 1. Through the sacraments beginning with Baptism; regular reception of the sacraments is essential for members of the Church.
 2. Through a life of prayer, communion, charity, service, and justice in the household of faith.
 3. Through association with others who want to follow Christ in the Church.
 - C. The Church at prayer.
 1. Liturgical year (CCC, nos. 1163-1178).
 2. How we pray.
 3. Celebration of the Christian mysteries (CCC, nos. 1273, 1389).

2. The Church teaches what God has told us about how to be holy and the necessity of avoiding sin. Failure by members of the Church to live out what God has taught does not invalidate the truth of the teaching we have received through the Apostles and their successors.
 3. The Church is guided and animated by the Holy Spirit and, as the Body of Christ, remains sinless even if her members sin.
- C. Who needs organized religion? Isn't it better to worship God in my own way, when and how I want?
1. God desires us to come to him as members of his family, his new people, so he established the Church to accomplish that purpose (CCC, no. 760).
 2. No one and no community can proclaim the Gospel to themselves (CCC, no. 875).
 3. Because human beings are social in nature, we need each other's encouragement, support, and example (CCC, no. 820).
 4. Worship of God has both a personal dimension and a communal dimension: personal, private worship is encouraged to complement communal worship (CCC, nos. 821, 1136-1144).
5. The Church offers us authentic worship in spirit and in truth when we unite ourselves with Christ's self-offering in the Mass (CCC, nos. 1322-1324).
 6. God taught in the Old and New Testaments for people to come together and worship in the way that he revealed to them (CCC, nos. 1093-1097).
 7. The Catholic Church is structured so that all the members, clergy and laity alike, are accountable to someone (CCC, nos. 871-879).
- D. How is it that the Catholic Church is able to sustain the unity of her members even though they live out their faith in different cultures and sometimes express their faith in different ways?
1. The Church is able to sustain unity because she has the apostolic teaching office of the pope and bishops to guide and direct her under the guidance of the Holy Spirit (CCC, no. 815).
 2. It is the pope and bishops who are the successors in every age to St. Peter and the Apostles (CCC, nos. 815, 862).
 3. The unity of the Church is also sustained through the common celebration of worship and the sacraments (CCC, no. 815).

 3. People need to confess sins to face the reality of the wrong they have done, and in and through this sacrament, they can be assured of forgiveness (CCC, nos. 1455-1457).
 4. The sacrament also gives the assurance of forgiveness to a truly repentant person (CCC, nos. 1452-1453).
- C. Aren't the sacraments just celebrations to mark significant moments in our life (CCC, nos. 1066, 1070)?
1. While the sacraments are usually celebrated at appropriate or significant moments or events in our lives, they are much more than simply celebrations of those moments. They are personal encounters with Christ, who acts through sacraments to help us (CCC, nos. 1088-1090).
 2. Each sacrament gives a special grace (CCC, no. 1129).
- D. Is there any difference between receiving Holy Communion in a Catholic Church and going to communion in a Protestant worship service (CCC, no. 1411)?
1. Yes, there are differences.
 - a. Because of Apostolic Succession and the priesthood, Holy Eucharist in the Catholic Church is the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Churches without Apostolic Succession and the priesthood do not have that gift (CCC, nos. 817-822, 1411).
 - b. Reception of Holy Communion in the Catholic Church is a statement of belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and of unity with all Catholics throughout the world (CCC, nos. 1376, 1391, 1398).
 2. Because of these differences, Catholics must not take communion in Protestant worship services, and non-Catholics must not receive Holy Communion in Catholic Churches (CCC, no. 1411).
- E. How do we know that any of the sacraments really work? For example, if a person dies after receiving the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, does that mean it did not work (CCC, nos. 1500-1501, 1503-1505, 1508-1509, 1520-1523)?
1. The effects of the grace we receive through the sacraments is not something that can be seen or measured.

V. Challenges to Worship and Sacraments

- A. Can't a person go directly to God without the help of the Church or a priest (CCC, nos. 1538-1539)?
1. Any person can always pray directly to God. However, God established the Church as a way for him to teach us and to enrich us with his grace. Jesus Christ gave us the Church and the sacraments for our salvation (CCC, nos. 774-776).
 2. Sacraments provide an encounter with Christ which is unique and graced (CCC, no. 1076).
 3. Sacraments celebrate and strengthen our unity and identity (CCC, no. 774).
- B. Can't God forgive us directly when we are sorry for sin (CCC, nos. 1434, 1440-1445)?
1. While God can forgive us however and whenever he wants, he knows what is best for us and has taught us through Jesus that he wants to forgive us through the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation

2. Each of the sacraments is effective whether we feel it or not; it is sometimes only in looking back that we can recognize how Christ has touched us and helped us through the sacraments.
3. The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can have different effects. Sometimes Christ does bring about physical healing through that sacrament. Other times, the healing is spiritual in that it helps the person to be better prepared for death, to be at peace, and to be eager to be with the Lord.

V. Challenges

- A. If God created me free, doesn't that mean that I alone can decide what is right and wrong (CCC, nos. 1776-1794, 1954-1960)?
1. No. The freedom God gave us is the capacity to choose what is right, true, and good and to resist temptation to sin (CCC, nos. 1730-1742); education for freedom (CCC, nos. 2207, 2223, 2228, 2526). The use of freedom to do whatever we want is a misuse of that freedom and actually lessens our freedom (CCC, no. 1742).
 2. Freedom is following the natural law God planted in our hearts (CCC, nos. 1954-1960).
 3. In reality, sinful acts diminish freedom; moral acts increase it (CCC, no. 1733).
- B. Isn't it wrong to judge other people by telling them something they are doing is wrong?
1. No. We have a responsibility to each other to encourage one another to live a life free of sin. To do that, we must remember that sin is real (CCC, nos. 1849-1869) and be willing to call what is sinful "sin."
 2. You would warn friends against doing something that could harm them; sin harms them more than physical evil (CCC, no. 1787).
 3. The Church reminds us that we are to love the sinner, hate the sin (Jn 8:1-11; CCC, nos. 1465, 1846).
 4. The pressure in society to practice tolerance toward all, no matter what they do, is a distorted understanding of what tolerance means; moral actions must always be measured by truth (CCC, nos. 2477-2478).
 5. Fraternal correction is an act of charity (CCC, nos. 1793-1794).
 6. Objective moral judgment prevents chaos; moral relativism is a common problem today (CCC, nos. 2488-2492).
- C. Isn't it wrong for the Church to impose her views of morality on others (CCC, nos. 1949-1960)?
1. The Church has the responsibility to teach everyone as persuasively as possible about what God has revealed about how people should live, act, and treat each other; fulfilling this responsibility is not the same as the Church's imposing her own views on others. In the development of public policy, the Church promotes the universal moral law and the common good, not her own ecclesiastical disciplines (CCC, nos. 1716-1724).
2. Human dignity and the moral code revealed by God are universal, that is, meant for every person (CCC, no. 1700).
 3. All people have the ability to understand the Church's basic moral teaching because God has written the natural law on the heart of every person (CCC, nos. 1954-1960).
 4. If every person were to live by a relative moral code dependent on choice, this would lead to chaos and a loss of happiness.
- D. Why can't we make up our own minds and be in control over everything?
1. The Church does teach that everyone can and should make up their own minds about their actions. The key is that the decision is made on the basis of an informed or educated conscience. The Church teaches us what is right and wrong to help us form our consciences correctly.
 2. It is always important to remember that we are finite human beings. This means we cannot know everything and we cannot be in control of everything.
 3. We have to remember that God knows, sees, and understands more than any of us can.
 4. The tragic conflicts that still exist in the world point to the imperfection of human beings (CCC, no. 2317).
 5. Our sinfulness can only be overcome by Christ's salvation (CCC, nos. 619-623).
- E. There's an old saying about charity beginning at home. Doesn't this mean that I don't have to worry about helping anyone else until I have enough to take care of me and my family?
1. No; concern for others is always a responsibility and characteristic of a disciple of Jesus Christ.
 2. In the Parable of the Widow's Mite (Mk 12:38-44; Lk 20:45-21:4), Jesus teaches us that real charity is measured not by how much one gives but by the degree of generosity with which something is given or done for another.

ELECTIVES

Option A: Sacred Scripture

The purpose of this course is to give an overview of Sacred Scripture with an introduction to the basic principles for understanding and interpreting the Bible. Because of the extent of the scriptural material, this outline will not try to cover the vast content but rather offer comments about Scripture's purpose and religious significance. Given the limits of a semester of study, it will not be possible to introduce all the books of the Bible here. But every effort is made to project a sense of the unity of the narrative for the divine plan of salvation, the presence of God's action in this record of his Revelation, and his desire to share his merciful love with us. It is suggested that for the detailed curriculum, comments on authorship, date of composition, and formation of text of each book of the Bible be drawn from introductions in the New American Bible or from the Catholic Study Bible for the New American Bible. This outline cites catechetical references from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church (Compendium), and the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults (USCCA) for various explanations of Scripture, with the intention of integrating catechesis and Scripture.

All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (2 Tm 3:14-17)

XII. Challenges

- A. Why do Catholics believe in things that are not found in the Bible?
1. The Church and her members understand that God’s Revelation has come down to us in ways that are not limited to the Bible. Besides the Bible, matters of faith revealed to us by God have also been passed down through Tradition. Oral tradition preceded and accompanied the writing of the New Testament.
 2. For example, many of our beliefs about Mary are not explicitly taught in the Bible but are implicitly present; they have been passed down beginning at the time of the Apostles and have been consistently reflected in the prayer and belief of the Church.
- B. Why isn’t Scripture enough for Catholics?
1. The Catholic Church and her members know that Scripture is important, but it is not the only way God’s Revelation has been passed down to us. The Church existed more than a generation before the New Testament writings began to appear.
 2. The doctrine of “sola scriptura” or “Scripture alone,” which is espoused by a number of Protestant churches, is not found in Scripture or the teaching of the Lord Jesus.
 3. St. John (Jn 21:25) writes that Scripture does not contain everything about Christ. The First Letter to Timothy (1 Tm 3:15) says that the Church is the pillar and foundation of truth.
- C. Why does the Catholic Bible have more books?
1. The Septuagint, a Greek translation of the Old Testament, was in use among Christians before the rabbinical council at Jamnia opted to use the Hebrew translation only (AD 96).
 2. The Septuagint contains seven additional books and additional passages in the book of Daniel and the book of Esther not in the Hebrew translation.
 3. The early Christians did not change the version they used because they no longer accepted the authority of the Jewish rabbis.

Option B: History of the Catholic Church

Course Four presented a catechesis of the Church and the Body of Christ in history: its nature and meaning, images, marks, life and ministry, guide to moral life, and the role of prayer. They will be introduced to the fact that the Church was founded by Christ through the Apostles and is sustained by him throughout history through the Holy Spirit. The students will come to know that the Church is the living Body of Christ today and, as such, has both divine and human elements. In this course, students will learn about the Church's 2,000 years of history and about how the Church is led and governed by the successors of the Apostles.

- B. If the Catholic Church truly has the fullness of truth, why have other churches broken away from her?
 1. Generally, other churches broke away from the Catholic Church because of some human element such as a disagreement with how beliefs are expressed or explained, or a desire to change forms of worship, or political or personal reasons. While the Church has the fullness of truth, not all her members appropriate and live that fullness of truth.
 2. Other breaks from the Catholic Church were the result of impatience on the part of those who saw a need for reform or a problem they wished to address.
 3. The Catholic Church is committed to seek unity in faith, and she works toward that, but such work for unity cannot compromise the truth of the faith.

III. Challenges

V. Challenges

- A. Why shouldn't we look out for ourselves first? No one else will look out for me.
1. God looks out for every human being. He brings us into being, watches over us in life, and draws us to want to live with him forever. Evidence of his concern can be found in the care for one's well-being often seen in the action of the Church as well as coming from family, friends, and members of communities to which we belong.
 2. Living in a self-centered way is one of the effects of Original Sin. God created us to live and act in a way that is centered on him and on others, not ourselves.
 3. Selflessness, rather than selfishness, is the characteristic of a disciple of Jesus Christ, who is the living embodiment of what it means to live in a selfless way.
- B. Isn't the degree of a person's success and achievement really measured in terms of financial security and wealth?
1. While there are many people who build their lives on such an approach, Jesus Christ, in his life and his teaching, teaches us that the greatest achievement is growth in holiness and virtue and becoming more like him.
 2. Real happiness is found in fulfilling God's plan for us.
 3. True and lasting fulfillment is never found in money or material possessions.

4. People who find the fulfillment in life which leads to inner peace and joy are those mature enough to understand that what really matters is God's infinite love for us and what he has taught us about himself and the meaning of life.
- C. Isn't not fighting back or getting even with someone who hurts or offends you a sign of weakness?
1. No. It takes a lot more courage and strength to forgive and not seek vengeance than to fight back or try to get even.
 2. Jesus Christ, in his life and his teaching, challenges us to see the truth that power and strength are to be measured in terms of virtue and inner strength.
 3. We have the example of Jesus Christ, who in not fighting back and in forgiving his executioners showed true strength.
- D. Isn't it more important to work for justice than to engage in charity?
4. We have the example of the martyrs, which shows the strength and power that faith and God's grace give.
1. The works of justice do not exclude the works of charity or vice versa.
 2. Charity should shape justice to make it Christian; charity is not extra or optional.
 3. A perfect world cannot be built by human effort for justice.
 4. Perfect justice will be realized only in eternal life.

Option D: Responding to the Call of Jesus Christ

In this course, students should learn how all vocations are similar and how they differ. The course should be structured around married life, single life, priestly life, and consecrated life. Students should learn what it means to live life for the benefit of others and the value in considering a vocation in service to the Christian community.

 - 2) Permanent: some men (including married men) are ordained deacons for life.
4. Holy Orders is a sacrament reserved to men (CCC, no. 1577).
- a. “The Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women” (OS, no. 4).

VI. Challenges

- A. Isn't having the right vocation, job, or career essential for a person's happiness?
 1. No. The foundational call from God is not to a particular vocation, job, career, or way of life but to universal holiness and communion with him. This is the basis of all happiness.
 2. Often the key to happiness is using one's gifts fully for God by using them to serve others in Christian love.
 3. However, a refusal to answer God's call may result in a more difficult road to eternal life, or it may even jeopardize one's salvation.
- B. Isn't the real measure of success in life the degree of one's financial security and material comfort?
 1. To some, the measure of success may be money and physical comforts, but that is not what Jesus Christ either taught or lived.
 2. Personal satisfaction in life finds a firm foundation in our relationship with the Lord and secondly in our relationships with other people.
 3. The ultimate goal in life should be holiness; this is where true success lies.
 4. In the Beatitudes, Jesus Christ teaches us attitudes essential for true happiness.
- C. Just as people fall in love, they also fall out of love. Isn't a failed marriage just a regular part of life?
 1. Failed marriages might be a regular part of life, but they happen because of our fallen human nature. God teaches us to see and understand marriage as something which lasts for life.
2. We know through Revelation that from the creation of the world and the creation of human beings, God's plan included marriage. Jesus Christ raised marriage to the level of a sacrament and taught that, properly understood, it involves lifelong commitment.
3. Jesus Christ has taught us to recognize that the love between spouses is an image of the unending aspect of God's love for us; he has promised to love us, and he does not break his promises. Neither should we break promises of marriage.
4. Married love involves not just feelings but also a commitment of reason and will; married love cannot deepen unless it faces and overcomes hard times and adversity.
5. God does give the grace needed to live out our commitments.
- D. Don't men and women who promise celibacy or lifelong chastity live lonely, unhappy lives?
 1. Some who promise lifelong celibacy and chastity may experience loneliness, as do some married people.
 2. Most men who become priests, monks, or brothers and most women who become nuns, sisters, and consecrated virgins generally live happy and fulfilling lives.
 3. Sexual intimacy with another is not essential for personal fulfillment and happiness.
 4. The heart of celibacy is a truly loving relationship with the Lord, expressed in a self-gift to others in his name.
 5. Committed celibacy for the sake of Jesus Christ and his Kingdom brings consolation that cannot be appreciated by one who has not lived it. Living a life of committed celibacy or chastity gives one a sense of the gifts of the eternal life to come.
 6. God gives the grace needed to live out our commitments.

Option E: Ecumenical and Interreligious Issues

The purpose of this course is to help the students understand the manner in which the Catholic Church relates to non-Catholic Christians as well as to other religions of the world. Building on the foundational truth that Jesus Christ established the Catholic Church and entrusted to her the fullness of God's Revelation, the course is intended to help students to recognize the ways in which important spiritual truths can also be found in non-Catholic Christian churches and ecclesial communities as well as in non-Christian religions. It is also intended to help them to recognize the ways in which other systems of belief and practice differ from the Catholic faith.

I. Revelation and the Catholic Church

A. Tracing Divine Revelation through the history of salvation.

1. Divine Revelation in the Old Testament times.

 - 2) "Israel" was the name given Jacob by God.
- d. God reveals himself to Moses and forms the People of Israel (CCC, nos. 62-64).
 - 1) He tells Moses about himself: "I am who am" (Ex 3:14).
 - 2) He gives the Israelites a code of both worship and morality.

2. Divine Revelation in the New Testament (CCC, nos. 65-67, 124-127, 151, 422-455).

- a. In Jesus, the Eternal Word made man, is found the fullness of Revelation.

 - 3) Sends the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles at Pentecost.
 - d. Divine Revelation ends with the death of the last Apostle (CCC, nos. 66-67).
- #### B. Divine foundation of the Catholic Church (CCC, nos. 758-769).

 5. Guided, sustained, and sanctified by the Father through the Son and Holy Spirit (CCC, nos. 767-768).
 6. The Church is the Body of Christ; he is our Head, we are the members of the Body (CCC, nos. 790-795).
- #### C. The Catholic Church and Divine Revelation.
1. Jesus Christ instituted the Church on the foundation of the Apostles (CCC, nos. 857-860).
 2. The Apostles were entrusted with faithfully proclaiming the Gospel and spreading the Good News Jesus Christ had entrusted to them (CCC, no. 858).
 3. This role of ensuring an authentic proclamation of God's Revelation has been handed down in an unbroken line to the Apostles' successors—the pope and bishops (CCC, nos. 861-862).
 4. The Catholic Church, in and through the pope and the bishops, is entrusted with protecting the whole Deposit of Faith, that is, the Revelation preserved in Scripture and in Tradition (CCC, nos. 84, 863-865, 1202).

II. Christian Churches and Ecclesial Communities Apart from the Catholic Church

- A. An ecclesiology of communion (CCC, nos. 787-789).
 1. Baptized people are in full communion with the Catholic Church when they are joined with Christ in the visible structure of the Church through the profession of faith, the reception of the sacraments, and respect and obedience toward those in authority in the Church (CIC, c. 205).
 2. Members of other Christian churches and ecclesial communities are in imperfect communion with the Catholic Church (CCC, nos. 836-838).
 - a. The communion is imperfect because of differences in doctrine, discipline, and/or ecclesiastical structure.
 - b. Christian churches (Orthodox Churches) are those with a validly ordained priesthood and the Eucharist (CCC, nos. 838).
 - c. Christian ecclesial communities do not have a validly ordained priesthood or the Eucharist.
 3. The ecumenical movement works to overcome obstacles to full communion.
 4. All the baptized, including those in imperfect communion with the Catholic Church, are members of Christ's Body, have the right to be called Christian, and are brothers and sisters to members of the Catholic Church (UR, no. 3).
- B. From the very beginning of the Church, there have been rifts and serious dissension (CCC, no. 817). Serious dissensions resulted in breaks from full communion with the Church.
 1. Schism with some Eastern Churches.
 - a. Following the Council of Ephesus in 431.
 - 1) Because of a dispute over the title of Mary as Mother of God, some Churches, such as the Assyrian Church, broke away from full communion.
 - 2) Later some returned to union with Rome.
 - 3) Modern dialogue with those who did not return has made progress in healing this schism.
 - b. Following the Council of Chalcedon in 451.
 - 1) Those who believed the Monophysite heresy (that Jesus did not have both a divine nature and a human nature) also broke away from full communion with the Church and formed what are called the Oriental Orthodox Churches.
 - 2) Modern dialogue with the Oriental Orthodox Catholics has made progress in healing this schism.
 2. The Catholic Church and the Eastern Orthodox Church were one until 1054.
 - a. The Schism of 1054 resulted in the establishment of the Eastern Orthodox Churches.
 - b. Contributing causes to the Schism of 1054.
 - 1) Filioque controversy (CCC, nos. 247-248).
 - 2) Growing cultural and political differences between East and West.
 - 3) Different forms of Church governance emerged.
 - a) Eastern Churches were governed by synods with a patriarch.
 - b) Latin Church was monarchical with the pope as final authority.
 - c. Difference between Orthodox Churches and Eastern Catholic Churches.
 - 1) They share the same liturgy but not the same bonds of episcopal communion.
 - d. Orthodox Churches and Catholic Church have strong ties to each other.
 - 1) Same core doctrine, beliefs, and moral teachings.
 - 2) Both have Apostolic Succession.
 - 3) Seven sacraments, validity of ordinations.
 - e. Differences between the Catholic Church and Eastern Orthodox Churches.
 - 1) Most significant: Orthodox Churches do not recognize the infallibility or the primacy of jurisdiction of the Pope.
 - 2) A few doctrinal formulations in the liturgy: the Eastern Orthodox Churches use the original wording of the Nicene Creed and do not accept the addition of the filioque (the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son).
 - 3) Differences in sacramental law and practice (e.g., Orthodox tolerate divorce and remarriage).
 - 4) Some Marian dogmas are taught in a different way.
 - 5) Ecumenical councils: not all accepted by the Orthodox Churches.
 3. Ecclesial communions: Anglican (Episcopalian), Lutheran, Reformed Christian.
 - a. Who founded these various ecclesial communities and why?
 - b. Common ties between the Catholic Church and these ecclesial communions.

- 1) Common beliefs about Christ derived from Scripture.
 - 2) Baptisms celebrated with the Trinitarian formula and proper intention are considered valid by the Catholic Church.
 - 3) In many cases, common moral convictions.
 - 4) Some common liturgical practices, e.g., common cycle of Scripture readings.
- c. Differences.
- 1) Differences in acceptance of the authority of the pope.
 - 2) Differences in doctrine, e.g., Calvinist belief in predestination.
 - 3) Differences in sacramental economy and practice, particularly the lack of the Sacrament of Holy Orders and, consequently, of a valid Eucharist.
 - 4) Differences on moral questions: e.g., abortion, divorce, and remarriage.
4. Other Christian communities.
- a. Some are the result of further divisions among ecclesial communions which separated from the Catholic Church, e.g., Methodists separated from the Anglican Church.
 - b. Shared belief in Christ and the Triune God but a strong emphasis on sola Scriptura (Scripture alone) as the standard for determining belief.
 - c. Differences in doctrine, sacramental understanding and practice, morality.
 - d. Many of these bodies (e.g., Baptists, Congregationalists) view the church as a local congregation and not a worldwide communion.
- C. Ecumenical efforts.
1. Ecumenism involves efforts aimed at fostering unity between the Catholic Church and other churches and Christian ecclesial communities.
 2. Ecumenical activity requires the following (CCC, no. 821):
 - a. Renewal of the Catholic Church in fidelity to her vocation.
 - b. Conversion of heart by all the faithful.
 - c. Prayer in common where appropriate.
 - d. Fraternal knowledge of each other.
 - e. Ecumenical formation of clergy and laity (knowledge of sacred theology including a historical perspective; understanding of the problems and benefits of the ecumenical movement).
- f. Dialogue among theologians of different churches and communities.
 - g. Collaboration in activities of service to others.
3. Greater hope of restoring full communion where there is
 - a. A visible continuity with the ancient Church (Apostolic Succession).
 - b. A shared understanding of interpreting revealed truth (Scripture read through the lens of Tradition), e.g., such a starting point exists with the Orthodox Churches.
 - c. Practice of the sacraments.
 4. Greater obstacles continue to arise in doctrine and in praxis: e.g., ecclesial communions allowing women and non-celibate homosexuals to serve as ordained ministers.

III. The Relationship of the Catholic Church to the Jewish People

- A. The link between the Catholic Church and the Jewish people is special.
1. Pope John Paul II referred to the Jewish people as “our elder brothers.”
 2. The Jewish people were God’s special choice to be the instrument for the salvation of the world. They were the first to hear the Word of God, that is, Divine Revelation (CCC, no. 839).
- B. The relationship between the Catholic Church and the Jewish people holds a unique and special position.
1. Unlike other non-Christian religions, the Jewish faith is a response to God’s Revelation in the Old Covenant (CCC, no. 839).
 2. The patriarchs of the Jewish people—Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Moses—are also the ancestors in faith for members of the Catholic Church.
 3. The Jewish people are the original Chosen People of God; Christians are the new People of God (CCC, no. 840).
 4. Our Savior, Jesus Christ, was born and raised as a Jew. Mary, the Apostles, and the disciples were also Jews.
 5. The New Covenant with Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the promises of the first Covenant between God and the Jewish people.
 6. Catholics and Jews share common elements of moral life and practice:

- a. The Decalogue is a strong part of Catholic moral teaching and tradition.
 - b. Jesus Christ drew on the Decalogue and the teaching of the prophets in his teaching on self-giving love and moral living.
- C. Fundamental differences with the Catholic Church.
1. The Jewish people do not acknowledge Jesus as a Divine Person, the Son of God, or the promised Messiah, nor do they accept the revealed truth of the Triune God, which is what is unique to Christian Revelation.
 2. The Jewish people have no sacramental economy; they continue to rely on the ritual prescriptions of the first Covenant reinterpreted for post-Temple Judaism.
- D. Anti-Judaism or anti-Semitism was evident among Catholics for many centuries.
1. The Catholic Church condemns all unjust discrimination, including anti-Semitism.
 2. In the twentieth century, the Catholic Church dropped from its liturgy any inference that the Jewish people as a whole were responsible for the Death of Christ because the truth is that the sins of all humanity were the cause of his Death.
- E. Dialogue with the Jewish people.
1. This dialogue has a unique character in that we share roots of faith.
 2. This dialogue also has an interfaith character because of the differences in faith and in sacramental understanding and practice.
 3. Aims of this dialogue include
 - a. Grow in mutual respect for one another as sons and daughters of God.
 - b. Give common witness on matters of peace and justice.
 - c. Deepen mutual understanding of the one God and his plan for the world.
 - d. Bring all to Jesus Christ and to his Church (Rom 11:12, 15, 25; CCC, nos. 674, 1043).
3. The Muslim people do not acknowledge God as the Father of Jesus, or Jesus Christ as the Divine Son of God, nor do they accept the Triune God, but they do revere Jesus as a prophet and Mary as the Virgin Mother of Jesus.
 4. There are many common elements of moral life and practice between Catholics and Muslims.
 5. Islam has no sacramental economy; Islamic law requires testimony of faith, prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and pilgrimage as expressions of faith.
 6. Unlike the Catholic Church, Islam has no central figure of authority on matters of faith and morals; there are also different ways to interpret the Qur'an.
 7. The Crusades and their lasting impact.
 8. The Catholic Church seeks to engage the Muslim community in dialogue to advance human solidarity.
- B. There are non-Christian religions common in the United States, including major world religions such as Hinduism and Buddhism, and others such as Sikhs, Mormons, and Bahai.
1. Common elements with Christianity.
 - a. As human beings we share a common origin and end.
 - b. Many of these religions teach to some degree compassionate action, moral restraint, spiritual discipline, and respect for human dignity.
 - c. These religions contain elements of truth and virtue, which can help orient their members toward reception of the Gospel.
 2. Those who do not know Christ but who still strive to know and live in truth and holiness can be saved.
 3. The fulfillment of the values and virtues of other religions is found in what the Catholic Church proclaims:
 - a. God is one, and that God is Triune.
 - b. Jesus Christ as the Son of God.
 - c. Salvation is a gift of grace available through faith in Jesus Christ.
 - d. Sanctification is for human beings to participate in the love of God now and eternally.

IV. The Church and Other Non-Christians

- A. The Muslim people.
1. Monotheistic (but non-Trinitarian) faith in common with Jews and Christians.
 2. The Catholic Church and Muslims acknowledge God as the Creator and claim ties to the faith of Abraham.

V. Proclamation and Dialogue

- A. The Catholic Church possesses the fullness of the means of salvation willed by God as the ordinary way of saving all people.
1. "All salvation comes from Christ the Head through the Church which is his Body" (CCC, no. 846).
 - a. God is one and that God is Triune.

- b. Jesus Christ as the Son of God.
 - c. Salvation is a gift of grace available through faith in Jesus Christ.
 - d. Sanctification is for human beings to participate in the love of God now and eternally.
2. “Those who, through no fault of their own, do not know the Gospel of Christ or his Church, but who nevertheless seek God with a sincere heart, and, moved by grace, try in their actions to do his will as they know it through the dictates of their conscience—those too may achieve eternal salvation” (CCC, no. 847; LG, no. 16).
 3. “Although in ways known to himself God can lead those who, through no fault of their own, are ignorant of the Gospel, to that faith without which it is impossible to please him, the Church still has the obligation and also the sacred right to evangelize all men” (CCC, no. 848; LG, no. 16).
- B. Interreligious dialogue.
1. There are many forms of interreligious dialogue.
 - a. The dialogue of daily life in religiously pluralistic societies/communities.
 - b. The dialogue of shared service to the needy.
 - c. The dialogue of theologians and scholars.
 - d. The dialogue of shared spiritual experience.
 2. Such dialogue requires mutual search for truth among those learned in their own religious traditions.
 3. Requires respect and understanding of differences in culture as well as in belief.
 4. Requires training in accurate knowledge of other religions.
 5. Can and should involve working together in service to those in need.
3. The Church engages in many types of dialogue, both ecumenical and interfaith. Those dialogues are characterized by respect and aim to bring about more unity.
- B. Isn't it more important to show tolerance and not say that the Catholic faith is better than any other?
1. Judgment about the truth of the Catholic faith does not mean that Catholics should not show respect toward people of other faiths and religions.
 2. Respect involves the effort of mutual respect and charity, and a refusal to treat one as less worthy because of differences.
 3. Catholics are to be respectful of people in their intrinsic dignity but not tolerant of falsehood.
- C. If unity of people in faith is the real goal, why can't each side compromise?
1. While unity of Christians is an important goal, the Catholic Church cannot compromise on the truth of what God has revealed. Truth is one; we need to subject ourselves to the whole truth.
 2. Where there are intrinsic contradictions in belief, one belief is true and one must be false.
 3. Sometimes, however, we overemphasize some aspects of the truth at the expense of other aspects. Serious, respectful, and loving pursuit of the whole truth can help us recapture the needed balance.
- D. What caused the four divisions in Christianity from the time of Ephesus, Chalcedon, the Schism of 1054, and the Protestant Reformation? Is there any hope of unity?
1. There were various reasons for the divisions.
 - a. In each case, there were disagreements about doctrine.
 - b. In each case, some degree of politics also contributed to the fractures.
 2. Since Vatican II, the Catholic Church has initiated and sponsored many meetings and dialogues with hope for movement toward unity. Positive outcomes include the following:
 - a. A willingness to meet face to face for prayer and dialogue.
 - b. Occasional joint statements on matters of doctrine and belief (e.g., joint statement with Anglicans on Mary, joint statement with Lutherans on justification).

VI. Challenges

- A. Isn't one faith or religion just as good as any other?
1. No, that statement is not true. The fullness of Revelation and truth subsists in the Catholic Church.
 2. If one has been given the gift of faith and chooses to reject or neglect that gift, that person acts in a way that is gravely wrong.
